General Call for Adjunct Instructor: Music Department

DESCRIPTION OF JOB:

The Music Department at Edgewood College in Madison, WI, solicits resumes in anticipation of possible openings for Adjunct instructor positions in the following areas: Class Piano, Piano Instructor, Music Appreciation, Music Theory, Ear Training/Aural Skills, private instruction on trumpet, trombone/euphonium, viola, oboe, music therapy and music technology.

These openings are contingent upon student demand, budget and course authorization by the Vice President of Academic Affairs. Lecture dates and class meeting times will also vary depending on the needs of the Music department. There is no guarantee that the Music department will be in need of an instructor to fill the areas listed above. This is a general call for resumes.

Located in Madison, WI, Edgewood College is a liberal arts Catholic college in the Dominican tradition, with 2,500 undergraduate and graduate students. It offers more than 40 academic and professional programs, including master’s degrees in business, education, nursing, and other fields, and a doctoral degree in educational leadership. Edgewood is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.
